

How to get to Nantucket

Option # 1

You will need to purchase a one way ticket leaving from the closest airport to you - to Nantucket
The airport code for Nantucket is ACK

Here are several websites that can help you book your travel at a good rate:

Option # 2

You can fly into Boston

Airport code is BOS

And then have a connecting flight from Boston to Nantucket (ACK)

There is only one airline that will fly from Boston to Nantucket, and that is Cape Air
Which is Located in Terminal C in Boston

You can purchase your one way ticket from Boston to Nantucket through Cape Air
Cape Air <http://www.flycapeair.com/>

Option # 3

Purchase a One Way ticket to Boston

The Airport code is BOS

Once you reach Boston - You then can take the P&B Bus (Plymouth & Brockton) to Hyannis
(which is about $30.00 one way) – The Buses are located in the Arrivals Outside

You will take the Bus all the way to the Last Stop which is Hyannis

Please visit their website for schedule& Fare:

P&B BUS: <http://www.p-b.com/>

Once you reach Hyannis get into a Taxi and ask the Driver to take you the ferry of your choice.
The taxi fare is about $10.00

Ferries are listed below.

Ferries:

From there you can take the Steamship or Hyline Ferry to Nantucket.

Please visit their website for times they depart Hyannis and prices

Steamship: <http://www.steamshipauthority.com/ssa/>

Hyline: <http://www.hy-linecruises.com/>

You should purchase a one way ferry ticket from Hyannis to Nantucket.

Additional Information:

*** It is very important that you start your travel as early as possible in the morning due to connections and times that allow you to get into Nantucket.

I would recommend you leave on the first Morning flight they have available.

I also recommend option #1 which is a little bit pricier, but is the best way to travel for first time travelers to Nantucket.
